

POSH WASH SHOWERS LTD.
ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Posh Wash Showers Ltd is committed to minimising the impact on the environment when carrying out its operations. Posh Wash Showers Ltd believe in safeguarding the environment and that this is an integral part of good business practice and that it has a duty to ensure that all of its operations are conducted with proper regard for the environment.

Posh Wash Showers Ltd. have an environmental policy which is committed to high environmental standards which aim to minimise any releases that may harm the air, land or water. We will endeavour to meet present needs without compromising those of the future.

Posh Wash Showers Ltd is committed to the following environmental objectives:

- To avoid any pollution due to emissions, leakages or noise
- To avoid damaging any trees, hedgerows etc when carrying out operations
- To pursue sound waste management practices
- To encourage recycling whenever possible
- To conserve energy and natural resources
- Use cleaning products and chemicals which are bio-degradable to minimise environmental impact.
- Encourage all third parties to have sound environmental standards
- Comply with all statutory and local government environmental regulations